* Scholarships from public funds include scholarships financed from the state budget, which also include assigned funds from games of chance, county, city and municipal budgets as well as public funds and revenues of public companies and other public institutions and European Union funds, except for scholarships for traineeship and/or participation in the student mobility and international exchange programmes (e.g. Erasmus/CEEPUS).

Note:

If the student is entitled to the University of Rijeka excellence scholarship in the academic year 2023/2024 and at the same time entails the right to another scholarship from public funds that is more favourable to them and wants to renounce the University of Rijeka scholarship, they are obligated to request in writing from the Center for Studies and Lifelong Education the issuance of a decision on the suspension of the scholarship and to return to the University of Rijeka the amount of the scholarship that was paid to them.

The student is obligated to keep track of their tax liabilities arising from income, scholarships and other receipts earned in a calendar year. If a student receives more than EUR 3,185.35 (HRK 24,000.00) in one calendar year, their parents can no longer receive a child tax credit. The tax-free amount of the student's receipts is EUR 9,556.18 (HRK 72,001.04) (more at the Tax Administration website).

The fixed exchange rate is 1 € = 7.53450 HRK
